

The Perfect Essay
Sahli English 10

The first formal essay assignment for the year is the perfect Essay. The purpose of this assignment is to develop and hone skills necessary to be a good writer. Editing-Organizing-Compiling-Presenting (not is oral form but in written form).

What is the perfect day? What is the perfect Car? What traits are necessary for the perfect tree? Your paper will be to address what you think the perfect anything is. It will be five main paragraphs. The introduction will make us want to read and introduce the thesis at the bottom of that paragraph. The body paragraphs will be clearly delineated per trait that you think is necessary for the perfect anything. Each main point must be completely developed with facts, examples, statistics, opinions etc... Points must be used to develop the thesis. Paragraphs will follow the TRIT method of organization. You will ONLY use three main points. The conclusion will conclude the paper without using the words “in conclusion.”

What is your idea of the perfect _____

Outline 3 main points with 3 sub points. USE outline template ALL SENTENCES

Thesis on top.

MULE RULES

Outline Due.....MONDAY

Rough Draft Due.....WEDNESDAY

ROUGH DRAFT DAY

Groups of three. Present each reader with your essay.

Read all discuss all

Work as a group is to read and perfect each paper.

Mule Rules

Organization

Grammar Punctuation

Ideas

FINAL PAPER

Will be an EDITED version of RD.

When you bring paper on final paper due date, you must also have a digital copy to make changes if necessary.

Paper will be turned in to turnitin.com